In the Courtyard Of the Sleeping beauty Castle

The morning or by night (Before or after the opening hours of the park)

CONTEXT

Once upon a time there was a brand new heroine of a modern fairy tale. This is the story of a little girl who had dreams of ever-increasing fantasy. Some of these dreams were similar to those of our Disney Princesses, full of love, poetry and moments of happiness shared with family and friends.

Among those dreams there is one that remained a true wish. She imagined a fabulous marriage, in which she wore a splendid dress and walked arm in arm with her Prince Charming in front of a real story tale castle.

That little girl is a grown young lady today. But contrary to many other little girls, she has kept her dreams untouched. She has not forgotten that when you really believe in your dreams, one day they become reality.

Let us tell you the story of that little girl's dream.

Let us tell you the story of the prince & his princess Fairytale Wedding.
